

A Course Summary – Robin Hughes

Summary of key points for question-writing:

- We must distinguish between Exam Board question writing and the rest
- Keep a notebook for ideas.
- Exactly how do I start?
 1. Consider a topic or maybe two topics!
 2. What are you wanting out of this?
 3. Who is your audience?
 4. What level of question do you want – problem, m/c, rearranging an equation, repetitive quiz questions, checking units, etc.
 5. Get a pad of paper out and perhaps doodle an idea or a diagram

- Explanations
- Diagram
- Computations & calculations
- Estimates
- Technique spotting
- Proofs
- Bookwork
- Data analysis
- Conceptual

- Think of an idea first and not a question
- Form an idea round it
- Doodling can help

Finally.....

- Let's write a question!
